WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel — And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food won't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sick and the world looks pink.

A note: Little Loper is a good old cat for the family. It takes three good old Carter's Little Loper Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing free and make you feel "up and up." Harmless isn't it, amazing in making bile flow free? Ask for Carter's Little Loper Pills by name. Refuse anything else. At all drug stores, 10c and 25c.

WHITE GIFTS TO BE FEATURED

Annual Christmas Service Planned At First Baptist Church

The annual white gift service, sponsored by the woman's missionary society of the First Baptist church, will be held in the church auditorium, Friday at 7:30 p.m. As is customary each year, the circles and young people's auxiliaries will bring in their gifts for foreign missions with Sunday school classes and departments and the Brotherhood cooperating in this endeavor which is known as the Lottie Moon Christmas offering for foreign missions. Mrs. J. W. Watts, who with her husband was a missionary in Palestine some years ago, will bring an inspiring message from that field and on the foreign mission program. Mrs. Watts is now a member of the faculty of the Baptist Bible institute in New Orleans. Other features on the program will be of interest. The young people's orchestra will play appropriate Christmas music. A specially appealing number will be rendered by Mrs. Norman Chon.

The decorations which will form the background for the program promise to be of exceptional beauty and reminiscent of Palestine. An invitation is extended to the membership of other churches and all others who are interested in the service planned.

To make it easier for huge transport planes scheduled to make long distance hops to take off, the plane leaves the ground with a small gas load and then is fueled from the air by a flying tanker.

He is survived by his wife, five sons, James A. Dean of Marion, H. C. Dean of Edgewood, Tex., J. O. Dean of Little Rock, Ark., Paul Dean of Monroe, and Elmer Dean of Winslow, Ariz.; and two daughters, Mrs. L. J. Jarmon of Marion and Mrs. J. C. Co-burn of Ponchatoula.

The body was returned to the home of his daughter at Marion. Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Marion Baptist church with Rev. G. C. Dennis, pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. Hansen, pastor of the Ponchatoula Baptist church, and Rev. L. T. Hastings, pastor of the First Baptist church of Monroe.

Postmaster J. R. Wooten is urging the public to purchase the policy of "Save and Mail" and now is the time to get postage stamps so as not to have to wait in line. However, every postage stamp will be made with extra checks to see that the public is not inconvenienced as little as possible.

During the first half of 1938, 1,627 civil aircraft for domestic use were produced. This represents a 90 per cent increase over the same period of 1937.

It costs only a few cents extra to insure your parcels and by insuring them a record is kept at both the mailing office and office where delivered and in case of loss or damage indemnity will be paid. The use of special delivery is urged on late mailings of parcels, especially those for distant places. This will insure delivery on Christmas day or the day before, which is Sunday this year.

JOHN A. DEAN, 85, OF UNION PARISH DIES WEDNESDAY

John A. Dean, 85, well known Union parish resident, died yesterday morning at 2:40 o'clock at the home of a daughter, Mrs. J. C. Co-burn, at Ponchatoula, according to information received here.

JUST A 'BEAR' HANDFUL

Puppies? Nope. But that's what you probably thought. They are brother and sister polar bear cubs, new arrivals at the St. Louis, Mo., zoo. They're warming up on baby bottles after being taken from their mother's cage for safety. Reason: wild beasts in captivity often destroy their young.

The public is urged to show the usual cooperation in making early mailings of parcels and cards in order that they may be delivered to addressees in advance of Christmas. Attention is called to the fact that parcels can be mailed now and a caution sticker affixed which will urge that they not be opened until Christmas.

Saturday, December 16, the parcel post and stamp windows will be kept open until 6:00 p.m. and as much later as justified. On Saturday, December 23, all windows will be kept open all day and the stamp and parcel post windows will be kept open as late as justified.

ESTIMATE FIRE LOSS AT $8,000

Six Persons Removed From Burning Hotel By Ladders Of Firemen

The Kersh hotel, located at the corner of DeSiard and Sixth streets, was badly damaged by fire yesterday, and the blaze threatened to engulf the two top floors of the three-story structure before firemen, in answer to a general alarm, extinguished the flames.

J. E. Kersh, manager of the hotel, last night estimated the damage at between $8,000 and $10,000 but stated "it could be more." Manager Kersh said the building, owned by the estate of D. Solomon, was covered by insurance and that furnishings were partly covered.

Six persons, two women and four men, were said to have been trapped in their rooms by the flames, but firemen rescued all of them with the aid of ladders from the outside. Five persons were removed through third floor windows, and one was rescued from a second floor window.

The cause of the fire, which broke out shortly before 11 a. m., had not been determined last night, but it was believed to have originated in the six-room apartment of Mrs. J. E. Kersh on the second floor.

The Kersh apartment was gutted by flames that spread into the second floor hall and adjoining rooms and climbed the stairway to the third floor. The blaze did considerable damage to the third floor hall, but the most serious damage was on the second floor.

The Kersh cafe and coffee shop, and the Louisiana coffee company, located on the Sixth street side of the ground floor of the building, suffered water and smoke damages, it was reported.

Six companies of the Monroe fire department, headed by Chief Frank J. Roddy, answered the alarm at 10:50 a. m. and smoke was boiling from every opening in the building when firemen arrived at the scene. Firemen soon had the blaze under control, but remained on the job until about 2:30 p. m. before being dismissed.

REAL ESTATE

Lonnie Atwell yesterday sold two lots to H. M. McGuire for $400, according to a real estate transfer recorded at the office of the clerk of court of Ouachita parish. The property in consideration was described as lots 1 and 2 of H. M. McGuire's Lakeside road subdivision.

It is rumored that Britain and France are considering the purchase of American planes, and flying them across the Atlantic, thus saving six weeks in delivery time.

Y'S MEN PLAN KIDDIES' TREE

Will Be Held At Northeast Junior College Next Wednesday

The Y's Men club at their weekly meeting held in Hotel Frances, Wednesday night, laid plans for the annual Christmas tree for underprivileged children. For many years this has been one of the outstanding achievements of the club, providing a little ray of sunshine and a present or two for those who otherwise would not know that it is the holiday season.

The Christmas tree for the underprivileged will be held at Northeast Junior college, Wednesday, December 20, the last day of school. City and parish boys will enjoy the children to, and from the college.

The members of the club who have been named on the committee to make the needed preparations are: Howell Heard, Don I. E. Bennett, Bill Walker, Fred Fickler, A. D. Williams and Dallas Goss.

DITTER FLAYS ENVOYS' TALK OF THIRD TERM

Asserts Ambassadors Too Busy With Partisan Politics

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—(AP)—A sharp division in Republican ranks over whether American foreign policy should be made an issue in the 1940 campaign was today an aftermath of "draft Roosevelt" pronouncements by two New Deal diplomats.

Representative Ditter of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee, said in regard to statements by Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy and Joseph E. Davies advocating a third term.

"All citizens are agreed there should be no partisanship whatever in regard to foreign affairs. Yet here are two United States ambassadors who apparently are so preoccupied with partisan politics that the first words they utter after setting foot on American soil constitute ballyhoo for a third term."

Ditter's statement appeared simultaneously with a prediction by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, that "our foreign policy and foreign questions will be the most thoroughly discussed and debated questions in this campaign."

Borah, who opposed repeal of the arms embargo, indicated he would carry the foreign policy issue to the country himself if Republican candidates now on the stump attempted to dodge or soft-pedal it.

He made known his views in a letter to Allen W. Dulles, New York lawyer, former diplomat in Republican administrations, and an adviser to Thomas E. Dewey in the latter's campaign for the Republican presidential nomination.

Ditter's statement referred to a remark by Ambassador Kennedy on his return from London last week that no man, however brilliant or earnest, could take over the presidency at this critical hour because he would need two years of training to handle the foreign situation as ably as the incumbent. It also mentioned Davies' comments at the White House yesterday, virtually echoing Kennedy's views.

Ditter said: "Not a word of rebuke of these two gentlemen (Kennedy and Davies) has come from the White House, despite the fact that Secretary of Agriculture Wallace several weeks ago was slipped down hard by a presidential secretary for asserting substantially what Ambassador Kennedy and Davies said. Indeed, Mr. Kennedy used the White House itself as a sounding board for his contention that world affairs made the reelection of the president necessary."

"When Mr. Wallace said that, Presidential Secretary Early asserted that it would have been kind and polite for the speaker to have consulted the victim before he spoke."

"Is it possible that Ambassador Kennedy and Davies first 'consulted the victim' and that the words they uttered are now pleasing to his ears? Is it possible that with the flop of the photogenic Paul V. McNutt, Mr. Roosevelt has decided he will undertake to smash the greatest of all American traditions and seek a third term?"

THINKS ROOSEVELT WON'T RUN AGAIN

ST. PAUL, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Senator Burton K. Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, said in an interview here last night that he expected President Roosevelt to decline to run for a third term because he "doesn't want the job" and "out of respect to American tradition."

"A lot of the ambassadors back from Europe have advised the president not to run for a third term," Senator Wheeler said. "I don't think he wants to or will run. Our nation, he realized, cannot afford to have such precedents broken at such a time as this."

"If the president does decide not to run again, then I myself will give serious consideration to any offer the Democratic national committee makes to me. However, I most definitely will not accept any nomination for vice-president."

Senator Wheeler and Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace will speak tonight at the farmers union convention here.

KISSES BOSS TO HOLD JOB

Instructor Says She Was Hired As Sunday School Teacher

DALLAS, Dec. 14.—(AP)—A spunky 26-year-old physical education instructor snapped at a cross-examining lawyer that she wasn't hired "as a Sunday school teacher" but maintained today she took her boss' kisses to hold her job.

Miss Mary Jo Miller is a state witness at the trial of E. Ross Wyatt, 36, former Brookeland, Tex., school superintendent, who is charged with planting a suitcase full of dynamite in her bedroom July 26, 1938. She escaped from the blast with bruises.

Miss Miller testified she took a job in Chicago to get away from Wyatt. Defense Attorney J. R. Bogarte asked her "after learning Wyatt was married and continuing to keep company with him, did you feel capable of teaching those young school children in the ways of right living?"

"Listen, Mr. Bogarte," she came back, "I didn't go to Brookeland as a Sunday school teacher."

She admitted giving Wyatt a suitcase for Christmas, but denied she ever made a trip out of the state with him.

"Did you ever go with him to a tourist court?" asked Defense Attorney J. R. Bogarte.

"Never," she replied.

She said she did not slap Wyatt or report him when he hugged and kissed her because "I wasn't in a position to. I had to hold my job. He was my boss."

Love letters, in one of which she referred to Wyatt as "my own, sweet, darling sweet," were written under pressure, Miss Miller said.

Yesterday Richard Miles, negro employee at a Shreveport, La., hardware store, identified Wyatt as the man to whom he delivered 100 sticks of dynamite.

Bogarte said Wyatt will prove he was in Nacogdoches, Tex., when the explosion occurred.

GREEN ASSERTS PEOPLE AGAINST DICTATORSHIPS

says They Won't Accept
Creed Of Hitler, Stalin
And Duce

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—(AP)—American workers, says President William Green of the American Federation of Labor, favor the "use of all means" to prevent the totalitarian nations "from accomplishing their dastardly purpose" wiping out Europe's smaller nations. In an address at a Madison Square garden mass meeting last night, Green told the people of the United States to "realize that their hopes rest on the eventual triumph of democracy over totalitarianism."

"The free people of America, and especially the men and women of war," he said, "never will acquiesce or accept the triumph of Stalinism and Hitlerism in Poland, Finland, Austria, or the Balkan states. The creed of Hitler, Stalin and Mussolini means everything we hold dear."

Others who addressed the rally, sponsored by the American Jewish Congress, the A. F. L., the Church of Christ, and other labor and religious groups, included Alfred M. London, 1936 Republican nominee for president, former President Herbert Hoover, general secretary of the Federal Chamber of Commerce in America, and Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, Jewish religious leader.

Green accompanied the rally's adoption of a resolution condemning the unparalleled acts of aggression which have resulted in the dismemberment of Poland, the ruthless conquest of Finland, the straining of unfortified ties, the murder of civilians.

London, who spoke by telephone from Tokyo, said that American people have a responsibility to "keep aggressive spirits of government that promise no law of moral restraint in getting into the western hemisphere."

He told the rally they are expressing the conscience of America—a conscience that refuses to be silent in a midst of persecution. "It is not difficult to understand our feelings of sympathy when we read the news from Europe. But we don't want to get into this war."

Hoover, who flew here last night on Chicago to take command of a Finnish relief fund headquarters, urged the American people to "keep defense" as a common love for democracy, a common passion for liberty, a common will to mutual acceptance.

Wise, who presided at the rally, declared that the American people have a duty to "keep America free from the influence of the challenge of a nation, however slight, to create waiting upon a necessary defense of minority in a and by it, over-run, trampled upon, injured."

The college living courses, with an enrollment of 30 students, have shown millionaires with only one fatal accident, which is about the same as a 1939 non-scheduled record.

It is estimated that 19 per cent of the drivers involved in fatal accidents in the United States are guilty of speeding.

DURRETT DENIES ASKING 'DEDUCTS'

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Carl Durrett, manager of the New Orleans office of the Louisiana state employment service, today began an investigation into reports that his office employees, paid partly by federal funds, were asked to contribute to the Governor Earl K. Long campaign.

Durrett said he gave permission to a committee of four or five employees to distribute subscription lists for voluntary contributions but stoutly denied that he had anything to do with the distribution.

"Every one of the 103 employees in this office in New Orleans is paid in whole or in part by federal funds," he stated. "I know the law. I don't want to be in any federal penitentiary, and I'd be in one inside thirty days if I permitted any pressure to be put on the employees for political contributions to hold their jobs."

"I was planning to go home to Acadia in Blenville parish for the week-end," Durrett added. "But I've cancelled that plan. I'm staying in New Orleans and I'm starting right now to get to the bottom of this."

Light Trojans Yield Nothing To Pels' Weight

Tallulah Confident Of Giving Homer Real Battle For Class Title

TALLULAH, La., Dec. 14.—(Special)—Although the Tallulah High school Trojans will be short on weight and experience in comparison with the Homer High school Pelicans, Coach "Mac" Phillips charges are confident they can give the invading Pels a "battle they won't forget" when they meet here Friday night for the north Louisiana Class A title. The Trojans tackled a heavier Bastrop eleven last week and emerged on top. Coach Phillips expects to have his charges in much better shape to meet Homer than when they faced the Romans and, despite the fact that the odds are against them, the Trojans are looking to win. Loop's Efforts To Clip Yankees' Wings Backfire

Chances Of Beating Champs Hurt By American League's Stand

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—(AP)—The method was a little roundabout, like hacking away at all the trees in an orchard because the big oak in the middle needed a little pruning, but the other American league clubs in trying to clip the wings of the Yankees have clipped the wings of the National league and 41 minor leagues. The only interpretation that can be placed on the rejection by the American league of proposed amendments to the major-minor agreement which would have strengthened the farm systems is that the other clubs feared that such amendments, while helping them, also would help the Yankees, and the only help they wanted to see the Yankees get would be in falling down. The thumbs down on the amendments, together with the new league ruling that the championship club be prohibited from making player deals within the circuit, is an admission by the American league that the Yankees are too strong; that they have an advantage over the other clubs and are not truly representative of the strength of the circuit. Heretofore it has been the National league which has maintained that the American league as a whole was no better than it was only the Yankees. National league probably are doing a little "sawdust" over the Yankees' admission, but the Yankees' move in their own league that Ed Berrow's team just has too much class. The bolstering of the farm systems undoubtedly would have benefited the major clubs which have such systems, and an approving suggestion to do this the National league seemed willing to build up to a point where it might compete with the Yankees.

SOUTHEAST BASKETBALL HEADS TO HOLD CLING

ATLANTA, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Basketball coaches of the Southeastern conference will go into a huddle here Sunday in a clinic called primarily to bring about more uniform officiating in regular season games and in the annual tournament. Officiating has long been a controversial issue in the conference. Some coaches prefer the open type game with a liberal interpretation of the rules, while others contend that as long as the rules are in the book they should be called strictly. Last March during the annual tournament 11 of the conference's 13 coaches gathered at Knoxville and discussed the situation. There was considerable criticism of the tournament officiating from certain quarters. Coach Roy Mundorf of Georgia Tech, spokesman for the group, said two sessions would be held Sunday. He will have his Georgia Tech squad in uniform for demonstrations in the afternoon.
